

Contact: Michelle Bart
National Chairperson
Phone: (626) 644-3472
helpingheroes@earthlink.net
www.nationalvigilforhope.org

NATIONAL VIGIL FOR HOPE
"ONE CHILD OR PERSON MISSING IS ONE TOO MANY"

Press Release

LIFETIME'S "OFF THE LEASH" STAR ADDISON WITT HAS VOICE FOR THE MISSING

March 17, 2009 - National: Addison K. Witt has come on board to have a voice for missing children and adults through The National Vigil For Hope 2009. Witt is a personal talent manager, acting coach, and TV personality. His management company represents actors of film, television, and stage. At any given time Witt's actors are seen in more than 75 TV shows and features played somewhere around the world. Witt personally appears in more than half a dozen national TV commercials throughout the year, and has been a Talk Show guest on Access Hollywood, Inside Edition, Radio talk shows, and other media outlets. Witt is the star of Lifetime Television's Off The Leash, the syndicated TV series (playing in Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, Canada, and the US).

The National Vigil For Hope 2009 is a national coalition of businesses, organizations, and individuals lending a helping hand and a voice to those children and adults that are missing in the United States. The National Vigil For Hope event will take place Sunday, May 17, 2009 (7pm ET / 4pm PT).

Many vigils will be held across the country and those not being able to make it to an event in their communities on Sunday, May 17, 2009 are encouraged to visit www.nationalvigilforhope.org and explore the many links of those missing.

For more information on hosting a vigil site or to become a community partner, please go to www.nationalvigilforhope.org. If you are reading this press release and recognize any of these people below, please contact your local law enforcement agency or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

